by deleting Section 63-9-201 of the amendatory language of Section 2 in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

Section 63-9-201. As used in this part:

(1) "Drug" shall have the same meaning as in § 39-17-402.

(2) "Homeopathic preparations" means medicines prepared according to the United States and internationally accepted homeopathic pharmacopoeias.

(3) "License" means a license that the state board of naturopathic medicine issues under § 63-9-211 or renews under § 63-9-218 authorizing an individual to practice naturopathic medicine.

(4) "Minor surgery" means the use of operative, electrical, or other methods for the surgical repair and care of superficial lacerations, abrasions, and lesions; the removal of foreign bodies located in the superficial tissues; and the use of antiseptics and local anesthetics in connection with these methods.

(5) "Natural antibiotics" means antimicrobial, antifungal, antiviral, and antiprotozoal agents that are naturally occurring substances, or manufactured substances that are chemically identical to those naturally occurring substances.

(6) "Natural medicine" means food, food extracts, vitamins, minerals, essential oils, enzymes, digestive aids, nutraceuticals, glandular substances, plant substances, herbal preparations, homeopathic preparations, oligotherapeutic preparations, gemmotherapeutic preparations, and natural antibiotics.

(7) "Naturopathic joint mobilization and neuromuscular re-education" means the manually administered, mechanical treatment of body structures or tissues, in accordance with naturopathic principles, for the purpose of restoring normal physiological functions of the body by normalizing and balancing the musculoskeletal system of the body.

(8) "Naturopathic medicine" means a system of primary health care practiced by naturopathic physicians, including prevention, diagnosis, treatment, and management of human health conditions, injuries, and diseases that uses education, counseling, biofeedback, natural medicine, topical medicine, naturopathic physical medicine, therapeutic devices, chelation, barrier devices for contraception, minor surgery, immunizations, nutritional assessment and counseling, hypnotherapy, joint mobilization and neuromuscular re-education, naprapathy, and dietary therapy to support and stimulate the patient's intrinsic healing processes.

(9) "Naturopathic physical medicine" means the therapeutic use of the physical, chemical, or other properties of air, water, heat, cold, sound, light, and electromagnetic nonionizing radiation and of the physical modalities of electrotherapy, diathermy, ultraviolet light, infrared light, ultrasound, hydrotherapy, massage, joint mobilization and neuromuscular re-education, reflex therapy, and therapeutic exercise.

(10) "Naturopathic physician" means an individual who holds a valid license.

(11) "Parturition" means childbirth.

(12) "Topical medicine" means topical analgesics, anesthetics, scabicides, antifungals, compounded preparations, antibacterials, antiseptics, and antivirals.
